

Environmental Health Specialist / Wastewater Operator

Regional Utilities Service Systems (RUSS) has an immediate opportunity for a full-time Environmental Health Specialist/Wastewater Operator. Under immediate to general supervision, the Environmental Health Specialist/Wastewater Operator will assist in the implementation and administering of RUSS sewer systems conformance with EPA, DNR, USDA regulations and RUSS requirements. Occasionally attend and participate in meetings in order to stay abreast of regulatory changes, impacts, and construction practices. This position will also assist with fulfilling contract duties as Environmental Health Specialist which include but not limited to: enforcing environmental health rules and regulations according to State and County standards, collect, compile and interpret various data relative to environmental health sanitarian, provide monthly updates to the Counties and RUSS Director as needed. Desired qualification: Graduate from accredited four (4) year college or university with a minimum of 5 hours in the sciences field, or high School graduate or equivalent with 1-5 years of experience with enforcing regulations, Environmental Health regulations, and or municipal or wastewater regulations: wastewater system operations, maintenance, construction and customer service preferred.

Closing date for acceptance of qualified applicants will be Friday January 4th 2019, at 4:00pm

All interested and qualified applicants can send or drop off resume to: Regional Utility Service Systems 1501 W. Washington Street Ste. 103 Mt. Pleasant IA, 52641